"The University of Miami has the resources to be No. 1. It may not happen tomorrow, it may not happen next week, maybe not even this year. But it's going to happen somewhere down the line."

— Howard Schnellenberger

Five years ago when Howard Schnellenberger was hired as the new head coach of the Hurricanes, the commitment was made to build a proud football program that would eventually challenge for the national championship. At 8 p.m. on January 2, 1984, Schnellenberger and his squad will do just that, climaxing a 1983 season that has been marked by surprise, drama and a steady rise into the Top 5 rankings.

In the final minutes of this year's opening loss at Florida, few could have envisioned 10 consecutive regular season victories, an Orange Bowl bid and a chance to battle No. 1 Nebraska for college football's top spot.

Even before the season, Miami's campaign was perceived as a rebuilding one. There would be a new quarterback. Two new wide receivers. Four new starters on the offensive line. Several newcomers on the defense. All facing a five-game home schedule and an overall task that included games at Houston, and at rivals Florida and Florida State in the same year.

The results now show that a tall, bright freshman quarterback — Bernie Kosar — answered the first question with the second best passing season in UM history. One wide receiver, Eddie Brown, delivered with 30 catches for an average of 21.3 yards per reception!

The other wideout, Stanley Shakespeare, caught 34 passes and scored four touchdowns.

The offensive line responded by giving Kosar the time he needed to complete 61.4 percent of his passes and the overall offense the openings it needed to record Miami's second best total offense mark ever.

And the defense merely rallied to become the nation's third-ranked unit, allowing just 9.6 points per game and only 259.4 yards per contest.

Yet it was more than individual efforts, or records, or statistics that made the regular season the most memorable in Hurricane history. It was the style, the courage and the scenario of what linebacker Jay Brophy labelled "a team of destiny".

As thousands of fans celebrated Miami's Orange Bowl bid at 6:08 p.m. on November 19, many must have recalled some of the courageous moments that had made the dream come true.

At Houston, senior back Albert Bentley overcame the grief of family tragedy to lead his team from a 7-0 deficit to a 29-7 triumph.

Against Notre Dame on prime time national television, the Hurricanes responded to the pressure with a sound shutout of the Fighting Irish. It was a week-long coming out party for the 'Canes in advance of the game. It was designed to kick off college football's TV season in a big way. And it featured the most elaborate halftime show in Miami football history. But more than that it announced to America the return of Hurricane football to the national spotlight and ratings.

There were the big-play thrills such as Eddie Brown's 72-yard TD romp on regional TV at Duke and Kenny Calhoun's 92-yard interception return against Louisville, there was a powerful 83-yard, 14 play drive at Mississippi State to take charge and Bentley's 61-yard run in the rain at Cincinnati to put the game out of reach.

Then, facing No. 8-ranked West Virginia, UM's defense won over a stadium filled with 63,881 fans and perhaps won over the city of Miami by allowing the Mountaineers only two yards rushing on 29 attempts with an effort reminiscent of another no-name defense the town once cheered.

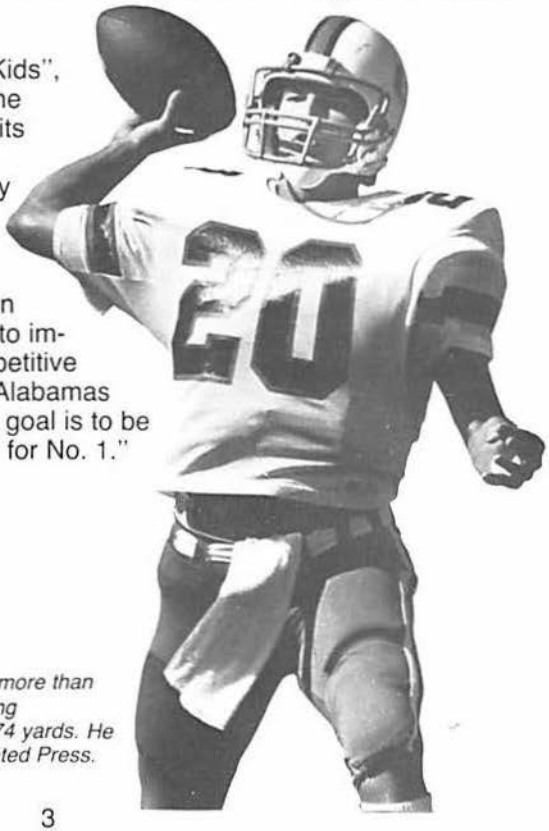
Suspense dominated Miami's two final regular season games.

With 1:04 remaining at home against talented East Carolina (8-3), Miami trailed 7-6. But as UM heartrates raced, Kosar found Eddie Brown with a 52-yard, arching pass to set up the winning score. Now the record was 9-1 and incredibly only Florida State stood in the way of UM's first major bowl bid since 1952.

With 2:12 to go at Tallahassee the Hurricanes trailed. It would be their last chance. Behind 16-14, the 'Canes completed three key passes, then called a draw to Keith Griffin who ran 20 fateful yards to put the ball in range for a field goal try. After three more plays ran the clock to :03, tiny Jeff Davis stepped forward, kicked a 19-yard field goal to win it and set off a flow of Hurricane tears—tears of relief and of joy, tears of accomplishment and grateful tears of a team that stumbled early, then recovered and finally triumphed.

There have been the "Cardiac Kids", the "Miracle Mets", Namath and the super Jets. Now Miami may have its own dream team — the 1983 Hurricanes, in the 50th anniversary year of the Orange Bowl and against No. 1 Nebraska for the national title.

As Schnellenberger suggested in 1979, "We will work and continue to improve until we are finally in a competitive status with the Notre Dames, the Alabamas and the Penn States. Our ultimate goal is to be the best and someday to compete for No. 1."



QUARTERBACK Bernie Kosar passed for more than 2,000 yards in his freshman season, missing Jim Kelly's all-time mark of 2,403 by only 74 yards. He was named first-team All-South by Associated Press.

EDWARD T. FOOTE II PRESIDENT

Fall 1983 finds Edward Thaddeus "Tad" Foote II entering his third year as president of the University of Miami. He is the fourth person to hold the office in the 57-year history of this institution.

A midwesterner of boundless energy and enthusiasm, President Foote has brought to the University leadership skills forged at Yale University and Georgetown University Law Center, where he earned a law degree. He practiced law in St. Louis before joining the administration of Washington University as dean of the law school for seven years and special advisor to the university chancellor and Board of Trustees.

No longer a newcomer, President Foote has become one of Miami's biggest supporters.

"The coming together of the destinies of a young but extraordinary city and a young but remarkably accomplished university make Miami a place of global significance. There is a great deal of strength here. I don't know of a university in the United States that has a more interesting future as far down the road as I can see," said the president.

And what of that future? According to President Foote, The University must be devoted to outstanding performance; there is no room for mediocrity. "There is simply no justification for the existence of a private university unless it does all of its work well and some of it uniquely well," he said.

One of the president's first actions following his inauguration was the creation of visiting committees for each of the schools and major division of the University. These committees, each chaired by a member of the Board of Trustees, are comprised of alumni, community leaders, nationally recognized experts, members of the faculty of other universities and others. They have been charged with the responsibility of assisting the UM in a thorough, objective evaluation of the work presently being done here, the quality and place of that work in this University, and national and international trends in the area under study.

Additionally, President Foote commissioned a special task force to examine how the University could best help the community deal with the problems it is currently facing and how the University contributes to the quality of life in South Florida.

The president's vision for the University also includes capitalizing on the geographic location of this institution as the emerging crossroads of the western hemisphere.

SAM JANKOVICH ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Since joining the UM staff on July 15, 1983, Sam Jankovich has encouraged a series of positive developments that will help guide the future of Hurricane athletics for many years to come.

When he accepted the job, Jankovich listed among his top objectives the reinstitution of college basketball and the reorganization of the athletic administrative staff.

Now, only several months later, Hurricane basketball is on the way back and the UM staff alignment is basically complete.

Jankovich plans to hire a head basketball coach this March or April and then work toward re-opening actual competition in November of 1985 in the new James L. Knight Center in Downtown Miami.

Initially the new athletic director obtained financial support from the private sector, received the endorsement of UM President Edward T. Foote who later announced that the University's Board of Trustees had given the full go-ahead.

At the same time, Jankovich was assembling a new administrative structure that would allow "coaches to coach, players to play and boosters to support the program" in the best possible manner.

Jankovich hired Kathy Noble as UM's associate athletic director for internal affairs and Joe Pineda as the new associate athletic director for external affairs. He also added Tom Collins as assistant AD for tickets, Mike Mullally as assistant AD for fund-raising, Corey Johnson as assistant AD for recruiting and high school relations, Patricia Bekele as academic coordinator, and Dan Radakovich as assistant AD for business affairs.

He also promoted staff members Roy Hamlin and Ron Steiner to assistant AD positions for marketing and sports information, respectively.

And while pursuing the return of basketball and the overall reorganization, Jankovich has also labored to stabilize UM football scheduling into the 1990's, obtain approval for a completely new artificial Super Turf surface for UM's Mark Light baseball stadium, and reintroduce proposals to the President for the construction of a limited capacity (42,000) on-campus stadium for Hurricane football.

The stadium project, which recently received the approval to explore several major donors, suggests a modern concrete facility adjacent to the UM Hecht Athletic Center that would help encourage fiscal stability for the athletic department and a unifying point for the entire University community.

Prior to coming to Miami, Jankovich served as athletic director at Washington State University where he developed a $7.5 million building effort that included both renovation of existing facilities and construction of new ones.

Jankovich, 49, is married to the former Patty Mullins. They have three children — Michael 29, Sue Ellen 27 and Sam, Jr., 22.

Spring of 1979

"Part of the football coach's job — no most of it — is to bring all of the components of the program together. If this means working with alumni, bringing the fans back and creating interest, besides getting down and coaching football, this is my job."

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER

This gentleman from Kentucky has a knack for setting the stage.

In 1979 he entered a late season game at Penn State with a surprise quarterback starter named Jim Kelly. The result? Miami 26, Penn State 10.

In 1980 he provided his team with a preseason slogan suggesting that "A Bowl is the Goal." Result? The 1980 Peach Bowl Championship.

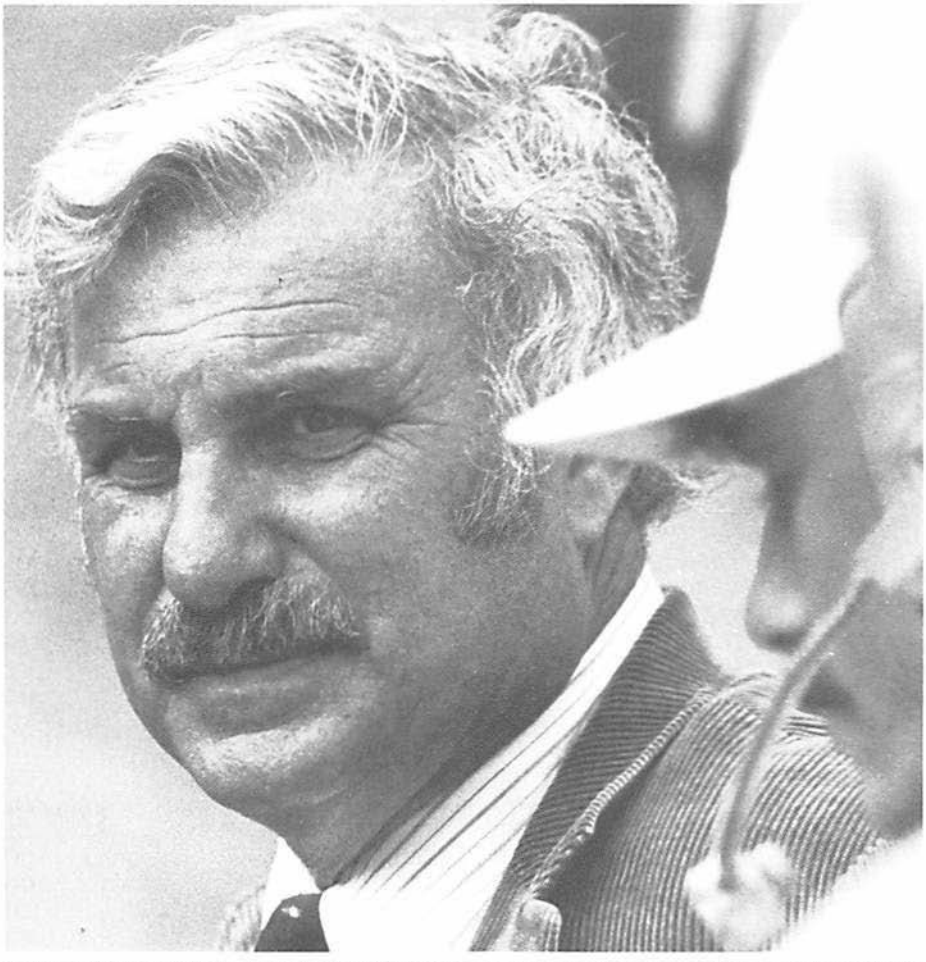
In 1981, Schnellenberger's team opened the season with a 21-20 victory over rival Florida on the strength of a miracle 55-yard field goal by Danny Miller. That helped encourage ABC to nationally televise the game against No. 1 Penn State. The score: Miami 17, Penn State 14. And then later in the year, on a televised contest with famed Notre Dame, Schnellenberger agreed before the game that the ABC cameras could come into his lockerroom live at halftime, regardless of the score. They did and they found a UM team with a 20-6 halftime lead. Final score Miami 37, Notre Dame 15. The slogan before the '81 season had been "Reaching Higher". The result was a final No. 8 national ranking.

Last year Miami pledged to "Go For It" and try they did. But an injury to Heisman Trophy candidate QB Jim Kelly in the season's third game, then two narrow losses prevented a run at the championship.

Beginning the 1983 season, Schnellenberger offered no special slogans, but rather a motto to guide the program for the years to come — "Commitment, Courage and Continuity". The commitment to try to be the best, the courage to make the necessary effort and the continuity day to day and week to week to produce a consistent winner. The result? The school's best regular season record ever, Miami's longest in-season winning streak and an Orange Bowl berth against No. 1 Nebraska.

Perhaps this now is Schnellenberger's most dramatic opportunity yet — Cinderella, David and Goliath all on the giant stage of the 50th Anniversary Orange Bowl Classic in UM's home stadium!

What better way to unite the many elements of the program he referred to in 1979 upon taking over the job at Miami.



COMMITMENT, COURAGE AND CONTINUITY became the watchwords for Hurricane football prior to the season and showed up proudly as Howard Schnellenberger focused the UM fortunes on a chance to be No. 1.

The 1983 season has added further lore to the Schnellenberger Era:

- Home record under Schnellenberger is now 24-2 (.923).
- UM record on national or regional television (since 1979) is now 11-2 (.846).
- Schnellenberger's career record is now 40-16 (.714), best ever for a UM head coach.
- Schnellenberger's record over the past four years is now 35-10 (.777).
- In the five years before Schnellenberger arrived at UM, the 'Canes were featured on Network television only once. UM's appearance in the Orange Bowl will be its 14th since 1979, representing revenue of more than $4 million.
- Miami's home attendance average of 44,555 for 1983 is the sixth best average in the school's history and the highest since 1967.
- Participation by the Partners For Youth group, which annually serves more than 150,000 individual youngsters in the area, continued to increase in 1983.
- UM has initiated a series of efforts entitled "Hit the Books and Get the Grades", designed in cooperation with Governor Bob Graham's efforts to encourage academic excellence in Florida's secondary schools.

FLORIDA 28, MIAMI 3

Gainesville, Fla., Sept. 3, 1983 — The University of Florida Gators took advantage of the young, inexperienced Hurricanes, capitalizing on seven Miami turnovers enroute to their second straight victory over the Canes at Florida Field.

Speedy Neal's fumble deep in Miami territory on the opening series put the Canes behind immediately, as senior QB Wayne Peace converted the miscue into a 5-yard TD pass. The Gators scored again on their second possession, with Peace engineering a 9-play drive, culminating in his second TD pass of the evening to FB Joe Henderson, this time from 2 yards out. The PAT failed, and with less than 10 minutes gone in the contest, the Canes trailed, 13-0.

The score remained 13-0 at halftime, and on the opening series of the second half, the Miami defense stopped Florida cold, only to hand the ball right back to the Gators with a fumble on the punt. Chris Perkins added to the Florida lead with a 53-yard FG, the longest of the season against Miami.

An 8-yard TD run by Neil Anderson made the score 22-0, and on the ensuing kickoff, a fumble by freshman RB Alonzo Highsmith, making his first appearance for the Canes, led to another Gator FG.

Miami was unable to get back into the game in the 4th quarter, turning the ball over 3 times, including 2 interceptions thrown by freshman QB Bernie Kosar. The Gators added a FG, and Jeff Davis completed the scoring with nine seconds left in the game, avoiding the shutout by kicking a 41-yard FG.

Despite the disappointing loss to the arch-rival Gators, there were some bright spots for the Hurricanes, including the performance by All-America candidate TE Glenn Dennison, who caught 7 passes for 87 yards. QB Kosar showed promise of things to come, completing 25 of 45 passes for 223 yards, and on one drive, completing five in a row. LBs Ken Sisk and Jay Brophy led the defense, combining for 23 tackles.

MIAMI 29, HOUSTON 7

Houston, Tex., Sept. 10. 1983 — Led by a stingy defense and an offense which capitalized on 6 Cougar turnovers, the Hurricanes evened their record by soundly defeating Houston in the Astrodome. It was Miami's fourth straight win over the Cougars in as many seasons.

After allowing a Houston touchdown drive of 80 yards on the opening series, the Miami defense shut the door on the explosive Cougar veer offense by intercepting 4 passes and recovering two fumbles. LB Ken Sisk led the way with 17 tackles, while rover back Kenny Calhoun added 11 tackles and an interception.

Senior place-kicker Jeff Davis converted 3 first-half field goals for a 9-7 Miami lead at halftime, and in the second half, Speedy Neal added a 1-yard TD run. QB Bernie Kosar completed the scoring by throwing TD passes to Glenn Dennison and Stanley Shakespeare.

Kosar completed 15 of 26 passes for 197 yards, as the Hurricanes rolled up 359 total yards; Houston was held to 207 yards of total offense.

MIAMI 35, PURDUE 0

Miami, Fla., September 17, 1983 — QB Bernie Kosar threw for 3 touchdowns and ran for another, as the Hurricanes whitewashed an out-manned Boilermaker squad in the season's home opener.

Backup QB Kyle Vanderwende boot-legged for the Canes' other score in relief of Kosar, who completed 12 of 20 passes for 182 yards while suffering 2 interceptions. Stanley Shakespeare was on the receiving end of two Kosar TD tosses, giving him three TDs for the season.

LB Ken Sisk was the Canes' leading tackler with 15 stops, LB Jay Brophy recorded 11 tackles plus an interception, and Jack Fernandez recovered two Purdue fumbles as Miami notched its first shutout of the season.

MIAMI 20, NOTRE DAME 0

Miami, Fla., Sept. 24, 1983 — On what was to be called the "Classic College Football Weekend", the Hurricanes proved themselves in front of a CBS prime-time national TV audience by shutting out the Fighting Irish in a totally one-sided game. It was only the third time since 1955 that the Canes were able to defeat Notre Dame.

While the beautiful Orange Bowl halftime performance showcased the city of Miami to the nation, it was the show put on by Bernie Kosar & Company which pushed the Hurricanes into the college football spotlight. Kosar connected on 22 of 33 aerials for 215 yards and a touchdown and was named the Chevrolet Most Valuable Player of the game for the Hurricanes. Speedy Neal plunged for a TD, and Jeff Davis kicked FGs of 27 and 36 yards to account for the Miami scoring.

The tough Miami defense was also up to the task, recording its second consecutive shutout and extending its string of scoreless quarters to 11. Freshman DB Reggie Sutton had a superb game — making 13 tackles, blocking two field goals and breaking up several passes. LBs Jay Brophy and Ken Sisk each intercepted a pass and combined for 23 tackles.

MIAMI 56, DUKE 17

Durham, N.C., Oct. 1, 1983 — An explosive Hurricane offense rolled up 613 total yards and 8 TDs, while the Miami defense held pre-season All-American QB Ben Bennett in check, as the Canes posted their fourth straight win.

Bennett broke the Hurricane defensive streak of 11-consecutive shutout quarters by tossing a 15-yd. TD pass with just 19 seconds left in the opening quarter, but the Duke QB was thwarted by a strong Miami pass rush and fine secondary coverage, throwing for just 162 yards and suffering 2 interceptions. The Duke ground game managed just 32 yards on 32 carries.

Offensively, it was bombs-away for the Hurricane QBs, with Bernie Kosar throwing TD strikes of 72 yards to Ed Brown and 43 yards to David Kintigh, his first catch as a Hurricane. Kyle Vanderwende then added a 47-yard TD bomb to Stanley Shakespeare and a 24-yarder to John Smatana.

The Hurricanes suffered an offensive lapse in the second quarter with 4 turnovers and led just 21-10 at the half, but the Canes put the game out of reach by scoring on their first 3 possessions of the second half, giving them a 42-10 lead.

WITH 3 SECONDS REMAINING, with Miami needing 3 points to win, No. 3 Jeff Davis tried his 3rd field goal of the night and gave Miami a 17-16 victory at Florida State and made the 'Canes Orange Bowl-bound.

MIAMI 42, LOUISVILLE 14

Miami, Fla., Oct. 8, 1983 — Led by RB Albert Bentley, who rushed for a career-high 152 yards, the Hurricanes rode a balanced attack to victory in the Orange Bowl. The win improved Miami's home record to 22-2 under Howard Schnellenberger.

Averaging almost five yards per carry on the ground and complemented by the 15-for-19 passing of Bernie Kosar, the Canes put together several long TD drives. Bentley ran for two TDs, and TE Glenn Dennison caught 7 passes for 81 yards and a TD. DB Kenny Calhoun came up with the big play on defense, stopping the Cardinals' opening drive by intercepting a Dean May pass and rambling 92 yards for the score. Louisville was held to 197 total yards by the Cane defense, 69 of those yards accumulated on that opening drive. Jay Brophy was the leading tackler with 13 stops.

MIAMI 31, MISSISSIPPI STATE 7

Starkville, Miss., Oct. 15, 1983 — With the thought of 1981's heart-breaking 14-10 loss on their minds, the Hurricanes made a triumphant return to Starkville, overcoming cowbells and the Bulldogs to post their sixth straight victory of the season.

The Miami defense held nemesis John Bond to one of his worst days as a collegian; Bond managed just two completions in 14 attempts and rushed for just 33 yards on 11 carries. Meanwhile Bernie Kosar had another big day, completing 23 of 38 passes for 271 yards, including 2 TD strikes to Ed Brown, one a 52-yarder.

QB Bond did score a 3rd-quarter TD on an 8-yard scamper to cut Miami's lead to 14-7, but the Canes took control of the game on the next drive, moving 88 yards in 14 plays with Speedy Neal going over from the one, and Miami was never in danger again.

PK Jeff Davis converted on all four of his extra-point attempts, giving him 52 consecutive PATs, surpassing the previous mark of 48 set by Chris Dennis.

MIAMI 17, CINCINNATI 7

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 22, 1983 — The Hurricanes overcame miserable playing conditions to keep a 7-game winning streak alive, as the defense put in a sterling performance on the slippery Astroturf of Riverfront Stadium. Miami held the Bearcats to just 144 total yards and made the afternoon a nightmare for backup QB Mike Willging, who was making his first start in place of the injured Troy Bodine. Willging finished the afternoon with 13 completions in 27 attempts for only 59 yards and was intercepted twice by Hurricane CB Rodney Bellinger. Jack Fernandez and Ken Sisk added 2nd quarter fumble recoveries to stop Bearcat drives.

Because of the torrential downpour which continued throughout the contest, the Canes were unable to muster much offensive firepower. Jeff Davis put the only points of the first half on the board with a 32-yard field goal on Miami's first drive, giving the Hurricanes a 3-0 halftime lead. RB Albert Bentley started the second half off with a bang, exploding for a 60-yard TD gallop on the second play from scrimmage, and Speedy Neal later added another TD, giving Miami a 17-0 advantage.

Looking for its 3rd shutout of the season, the Miami defense tried desperately to stop a late Cincinnati drive, but substitute QB Doug Rutan prevented the whitewash by tossing a 10-yard TD pass with just 22 seconds left in the game.

MIAMI 20, WEST VIRGINIA 3

Miami, Fla., Oct. 29, 1983 — In front of a crowd of 63,881 overjoyed fans, the Hurricanes took a giant step forward to an Orange Bowl bid by shutting down the highly-ranked Mountaineers at Homecoming.

The Miami defense was once again superb, harassing West Virginia's starting QB Jeff Hostetler all afternoon, sacking him five times and forcing him out of the pocket on numerous occasions. Fred Robinson turned in an excellent performance, recording seven unassisted tackles, including three sacks, and also tipped a pass that was then intercepted by Jay Brophy. Brophy added 15 tackles to his interception, while MG Tony Fitzpatrick made nine unassisted stops, including two sacks. The Mountaineer rushing attack, which was averging 177 yards per game going into the contest, was held to just 2 net yards on 29 carries. The only score for West Virginia came on a 21-yard field goal by Paul Woodside when the Mountaineers' opening drive stalled deep in Hurricane territory.

Offensively, Bernie Kosar threw two TD passes — a 19-yarder to Glenn Dennison and a 5-yard strike to Keith Griffin. Dennison caught seven balls for 72 yards and in the process set a UM record for catches in a single season. Jeff Davis added two field goals to account for all the scoring.

MIAMI 12, EAST CAROLINA 7

Miami, Fla., Nov. 5, 1983 — With major bowl hopes dangerously in jeopardy, Bernie Kosar drove the Canes 80 yards in the final minutes of the game for the winning score, as Miami outlasted a scrappy Pirate team to post its ninth-consecutive victory.

The big play on the final Hurricane drive was a 52-yard pass from Kosar to Ed Brown, which helped to set up Kosar's one-yard TD plunge with just 1:04 left. However, it was the Miami defense that came up with possibly the game's biggest play by stopping Pirate RB Tony Baker on 3rd-and-2 play at the Miami 3-yard line with less than 5 minutes left and the Pirates leading, 7-6. East Carolina PK Jeff Heath then missed a 21-yard FG attempt, setting the stage for Miami's dramatic game-winning drive. The Pirates, who showed a consistent offense and a stiff defense throughout the contest, had one last chance for the win, but two long passes in the final seconds thrown into the Hurricane endzone fell incomplete to preserve the victory.

East Carolina held a 7-0 halftime lead, but the Canes retaliated in the 3rd quarter on a 4-yard TD pass from Kosar to Albert Bentley. Jeff Davis' PAT, however, was blocked, halting his consecutive conversion streak at 54.

Glenn Dennison and Bernie Kosar added their names to the UM record book; Kosar set single-season marks for completions and TD passes, while Dennison established a new standard for career receptions.

MIAMI 17, FLORIDA STATE 16

Tallahassee, Fla., Nov. 12, 1983 — The Hurricanes' dreams of an Orange Bowl appearance and a shot at the national championship became a reality on a cool night in Tallahassee, as Jeff Davis booted a 19-yard FG on the game's last play to give Miami a hard-fought 17-16 victory. The win closed out the Canes' regular season with a 10-1 record, including 10 consecutive victories and marked the first time in the school's history that a Hurricane team won 10 games in a season.

The big play of Miami's winning drive, which began with just 2:12 to play, was Keith Griffin's 20-yard run to the FSU nine. Three short running plays then set up the winning kick. Bernie Kosar, who for the second week in a row engineered a clutch winning drive in the final minutes despite being hobbled by an ankle injury, finished the game with 21 completions in 35 attempts for 243 yards. His main target was Ed Brown, who caught eight passes for 150 yards, including a 37-yard TD aerial late in the 3rd quarter to cut the Hurricane deficit to 16-14.

After allowing an Albert Bentley TD plunge on Miami's opening drive, the much-maligned FSU defense was up to the task, holding Miami scoreless for the next 2½ quarters by putting heavy pressure on Kosar, sacking him 4 times. David Ponder blocked Rick Tuten's punt out of the Miami endzone for a safety, giving the Seminoles their first points. The FSU running attack was also very effective, piling up 202 yards and 2 TDs on the ground against the Cane defense, ranked 2nd in the nation. Greg Allen's 3-yard run gave the Seminoles a 9-7 halftime led, and Bob Davis' 1-yard TD sneak in the 3rd period upped the margin to 16-7.

But it was Jeff "The Flea" Davis who provided the difference, atoning for two earlier FG misses by drilling the winning kick and earning a victory ride off the field on the shoulders of his huge teammates.

Cumulative UM Record: 10-1

MIAMI VS. NEBRASKA - SERIES HISTORY

The Cornhuskers hold a 4-1 advantage in the series, which dates back to 1951, and now have a 4-game winning streak against the Canes. The home team has always been victorious - Nebraska winning the three games played at Lincoln, and the Hurricanes coming out on top in the '51 contest in the Orange Bowl. The only game of the series played on neutral ground was a 36-34 Cornhusker victory in the 1962 Gotham Bowl, played at Yankee Stadium in New York.

November 30, 1951 — Orange Bowl - Miami, Fla.

NEBRASKA	7

In the first meeting ever between the two schools, 32,283 fans looked on as the Canes won a tough defensive battle. Frank Smith was the offensive star for Miami, scoring on TD runs of 1 and 23 yards, and former UM Athletic Director Harry "The Scooter" Mallios plunged for an insurance TD late in the 3rd quarter. Nebraska led at the half, 7-6, but the Huskers were outmanned by a strong UM team which finished the season with an 8-3 record, including a 14-0 victory over Clemson in the Gator Bowl.

Nebraska avenged the '51 loss on Band Day by holding off a late threat by Andy Gustafson's Hurricanes. Miami got a 5-yard TD run from Gordon Malloy and held a 10-7 advantage at halftime, but two second-half TDs for Nebraska put the Cornhuskers ahead to stay. Ed Oliver added a Miami touchdown, but the comeback fell short when Nebraska intercepted a J. B. Johnston pass in Cornhusker territory late in the contest. The Canes went on to post a 4-5 record, while Nebraska finished 3-6-1.

All-American QB George Mira had one of his finest games ever in the 17-degree weather as the contest turned into an offensive thriller, with the two teams trading scores in every quarter. Mira tossed TD passes of 10 yards to Ben Rizzo and 30 yards to Nick Spinelli, and the score was tied at halftime, 20-20. Miami's Nick Ryder ran for 2 TDs in the second half, but the Cornhuskers matched each score and tacked on 2-point conversions to each TD, providing the margin of victory. Mira, who completed 24 of 46 passes for 321 yards and was named the game's MVP, tried to take the Canes in for a winning score late in the 4th quarter, but an interception by Bob Brown in Nebraska territory in the waning moments of the contest sealed the win for the Cornhuskers.

It was a homecoming reunion of sorts for Hurricane Head Coach Carl Selmer, who had been offensive line coach for the Cornhuskers in the 1962 Gotham Bowl clash, and his Miami squad gave Nebraska all it could handle for a half of football, before the powerful Huskers took control of the contest in the 2nd half. Nebraska, who entered the game with a 3-0 record, was surprised early by the 0-2 Hurricanes, and Miami led at the half, 9-7, behind 3 Chris Dennis field goals. Nebraska QB Vince Ferragamo, now with the NFL's Los Angeles Rams, came off the bench in the 2nd half and engineered three Cornhusker TD drives, completing 8 of 9 passes for 127 yards, including a 40-yard TD strike to Bobby Thomas. Miami punter Mike Archer, now Hurricane defensive back coach, had a big afternoon, punting 6 times for a 44-yard average, including two 1st-quarter boomers of 63 and 56 yards. Nebraska outgained the Hurricanes, 399 yards to 201, and went on to post a 10-2 mark, losing to Arizona State in the Fiesta Bowl, 17-14, thus earning a No. 9 ranking in both polls at season's end. Miami finished at 2-8.

Again the Hurricanes invaded Nebraska looking for an upset, and led the game for 3 quarters before falling short in the final stanza. All-American RB Ottis Anderson scored the only points of the first half on a 5-yard TD run, which was set up by a Bryan Ferguson interception. A fumbled snap foiled the PAT, and the Hurricanes took a 6-0 lead into the lockerroom at halftime, much to the surprise of the 76,155 fans looking on. However, it would once again be 2nd-half heroics by Vince Ferragamo that would get the Cornhuskers untracked. Ferragamo fired a 32-yard TD pass to Chuck Malito, which gave Nebraska a 7-6 advantage at the end of the 3rd quarter, but the Canes struck right back with a 51-yard FG by Chris Dennis to regain the lead with just 12 minutes to play. The turning point of the game then came with about nine minutes remaining. With Nebraska punting on 4th-and-2 at the Miami 49, the Canes were guilty of roughing the kicker, giving the Cornhuskers a first down at the Miami 33. A 15-yard face-mask penalty against Miami on the subsequent play gave Nebraska the ball at the 18, and Al Eveland kicked the go-ahead FG with about 6½ minutes left. Ferragamo then completed the scoring with a 23-yard TD pass to Dave Shamblin. Miami threatened in the closing minutes as it penetrated to the Nebraska 31, but E. J. Baker's fumble with 1:25 left locked up a hard-fought 17-9 win for the Huskers. Ferragamo finished with 17 completions in 22 attempts for 264 yards and an interception, and Nebraska (a 9-3-1 team that year) rolled up 471 total yards to 168 for Miami (3-8). After defeating Texas Tech, 27-24, in the Bluebonnet Bowl, the Cornhuskers were ranked 7th in the nation by UPI, 9th by AP.

UM in Bowls

PEACH BOWL
Miami 20, Virginia Tech 10 — January 2, 1981

Atlanta's steel-blue sky provided the backdrop as the Hurricanes embarked on their first post-season bowl appearance since 1967, squaring off against Virginia Tech on a clear Peach Bowl day at Fulton County Stadium. Performing on national television (CBS), Howard Schnellenberger's troops set the pace early with two long scoring drives that proved to be the winning margin. UM took the opening kickoff and marched 68 yards to paydirt, with QB Jim Kelly hitting Larry Brodsky on a 15-yard strike to culminate the nine-play drive. On Miami's third possession, Kelly connected through the air on three occasions to spark a 10-play, 99-yard drive. Chris Hobbs did the honors with a 12-yard scamper up the middle to cap what CBS commentator Hank Stram described as "a textbook-perfect scoring drive." Danny Miller's second PAT of the afternoon made the score 14-0. The Hokies closed the gap to 14-10 early in the second half, but two field goals by Miller put the game beyond Tech's grasp and assured Miami of its first bowl victory since '66. Kelly was selected the game's outstanding player on offense, while UM middle guard Jim Burt was named defensive MVP.

BLUEBONNET BOWL
Miami 21, COLORADO 31 — December 23, 1967

In a wild scoring spectacle Colorado finally won out 31-21 after the lead had changed hands five times at Rice Stadium in Houston, Texas. In the first quarter, Colorado's Larry Plantz tallied from seven yards out while Miami came back to deadlock the count on Joe Mira's score from the two. UM moved ahead moments later as Jimmy Dye stole a pass from Dan Kelly and romped 77 yards. A 31-yard field goal by John Farler just before halftime, followed by an 80-yard TD march with the second-half kickoff, sent the Buffaloes roaring to the front again, 17-14. Miami regained the lead 21-17 in the final period on an 85-yard drive sparked by Bill Miller's four pass completions to Jerry Daanen, the last one for nine yards and the score. With six minutes remaining, Colorado surged ahead for the third time on a dazzling 38-yard gallop by Anderson. UM was coached by Charlie Tate.

LIBERTY BOWL
Miami 14, Virginia Tech 7 — December 10, 1966

Playing in frigid 36-degree weather in Memphis, Miami found itself on the trailing end of a 7-0 score at halftime, but in the end proved too powerful for Virginia Tech. Tech's only score of the game came early in the opening quarter after Jim Richard blocked Bobby Stokes' punt deep in UM territory. It took the Virginians five plays to go 21 yards for the TD. Miami tied the score in the third period on a 53-yard drive, highlighted by Bill Miller's passing and the running of Joe Mira. Miller threw seven yards to Mira for the TD and Ray Harris made good on his conversion try. A 7-yard march in the final quarter brought UM its winning TD. On the drive, Miller completed three air bombs to end Jimmy Cox (12, 11, and 38 yards), and Doug McGee barreled over from the one on fourth down with 8:05 left in the game. Miami's potent defense was led by the fabulous Ted Hendricks.

GOTHAM BOWL
Miami 34, Nebraska 36 — December 15, 1962

This spectacle was played in freezing 17-degree weather in ice-plagued, snow-banked Yankee Stadium. The brave souls who showed up will remember the offensive thriller — and All-American QB George Mira — for many years to come. Leadership see-sawed back and forth, changing hands six times before Nebraska finally won out 36-34. The Hurricanes rolled up an amazing 502 yards rushing and passing to Nebraska's 296 — and had a margin of 34-12 in first downs. Scoring found the Cornhuskers drawing first blood, but Miami tied it up 6-6 and then took command, 12-6. Before the half ended, Nebraska led 13-12 and Miami 20-13 (score was tied 20-20 at half). In the final half, Miami led 27-20, and Nebraska 28-27, 36-27, and 36-34. Mira had one of his finest hours in this Gotham Bowl struggle, shattering his own all-time UM passing record with 24 completions for 321 yards and two touchdowns. This performance won him the game's MVP award. Scribes hailed him as the greatest passer to appear in Yankee Stadium since Johnny Lujack came to town with Notre Dame in the middle '40s.

Miami 14, Syracuse 15 — December 16, 1961

Miami broke away to a 14-0 lead at halftime, but Syracuse, led by Heisman winner Ernie Davis, came back in the game's waning minutes to pull it out of the fire, 15-14. James Vollenweider romped 12 yards through the entire Syracuse team for Miami's first TD in the opening quarter, while the other came on a 60-yard punt return by Nick Spinelli seconds before the half ended. Ernie Davis put Syracuse back into the running with a score in the third period. Dave Sarette passed to Easterly for a two-point conversion. Syracuse's other tally came in a final-period pass, Sarette to Easterly. The winning point was kicked by Ken Erickson.

GATOR BOWL
Miami 14, Clemson 0 — January 1, 1952

When injuries cost Miami its backfield ace, Frank Smith, and several linemen prior to the game, Clemson was rated a top-heavy favorite. Coach Andy Gustafson even had to start freshmen. One of them was an end, Frank McDonald, who caught a pass to set up a touchdown. Flankman Ed Lutes caught a 46-yard aerial to set up another. Harry Mallios made both TDs, the first on a pitchout from Jack Hackett in the opening quarter and the other on a short leap over the goal in the second period. Elmer Tremont converted after both scores and contributed much toward frustrating Clemson's scoring ambitions with his punting. He booted nine times for an average of 44.5 yards per kick. Miami's defensive standout was Jim Dooley, the MVP. He intercepted four passes to set a Gator Bowl record.

ORANGE BOWL

After being run over in the first half (Clemson led 9 to 1 in first downs, 158 yards to 39 yard in total offense, and by a 13-0 score), Miami caught fire in the third period and moved ahead 14-13. Harry Mallios, taking a pitchout from Bob Scheidenbach, sailed around right end five yards for Miami's first TD. Frank Smith tallied the other on a 14-yard pass thrown by Jack Hackett. Gordon Watson kicked both extra points. Apparently heading for another score, Miami drew three successive 15-yard penalties. One nullified a score, the others nullified good runs. Still another penalty sent Miami back to its one-yard line, where a safety (Sterling Smith tackled Frank Smith behind the goal line) gave Clemson a 15-14 victory. The Orange Bowl record for the longest completed pass through the air was equaled when Bob Scheidenbach tossed to end Ed Lutes for 78 yards.

ORANGE BOWL
Miami 13, Holy Cross, 6 — January 1, 1946

This was a tense, thrilling struggle with each club scoring once in the opening half and missing the extra point. Joe Krull tallied for Miami on a reverse and Walter Brennan scored for Holy Cross on a pass from Stan Kozlowski. Seconds before the final gun sounded ending the game, the Crusaders came up with a long, desperation pass attempt thrown by halfback Gene De Filippo. Holy Cross end Frank Parker, open downfield, reached into the air but the ball bounced off his hands into the waiting left hand of Hurricane halfback Al Hudson. Al juggled the pigskin momentarily, and then the former Miami Edison High track star was on his way down the sideline. There wasn't a man in the Crusader squad who could have caught Hudson on that 89-yard sprint to fame. The game was over as Galloping Al shot past the 35-yard line, but he kept on going. When Harry Ghaul kicked the extra point it was anticlimatic . . . but it made the final count read Miami 13, Holy Cross 6.

ORANGE BOWL
Miami 0, Bucknell 26 — January 1, 1935

This New Year's game was moved to a wooden stadium on the site of the present Orange Bowl, and the Miami-Bucknell battle inaugurated what is known today as the Orange Bowl Classic. Bucknell, champion of the smaller eastern colleges, had a sensational backfield and Miami never had a chance. UM failed to complete a single pass in 10 tries. Bucknell won, 26-0. UM was coached by Tom McCann.

PALM FESTIVAL
Miami 7, Duquesne 33 — January 1, 1934

The Hurricanes met a Duquesne 11 that rated among the nation's best and was coached by Elmer Layden, one of the famed Four Horsemen of Notre Dame. The Pittsburghers used three teams, and Miami — which scarcely had any reserve talent — was worn down and Duquesne ran wild in the fourth quarter to win 33-7. (Miami was only down 12-7 when Duquesne started its final surge.) George Reichgott scored UM's lone TD early in the fourth period on a pass from Johnny Ott, and Pete Petrowski booted the extra point. The battle was waged at Moore Park.

PALM FESTIVAL
Miami 7, Manhattan 0 — January 1, 1933

In this first Festival of the Palms Classic, Miami was matched against Coach Chick Meehan's colorful military-stepping Manhattan College team of New York City, which was rated best of the eastern small colleges and was supposed to win by a wide margin. Bob Zuppke, then Illinois coach, offered to help his ex-pupil Tom McCann prep the Hurricanes and did a masterful job. A fired-up defense stopped the favored New Yorkers — once holding three inches from a goal — while the Hurricanes cut loose on a series of wild spread formations to earn a thrilling 7-0 victory. This game was actually the forerunner to the Orange Bowl Classic. A crowd of only 3,500 observed the upset.

MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEW POLICY: All interviews with UM players and coaches should be scheduled through the Sports Information staff. The best time to talk to Coach Schnellenberger is between 1 p.m. and 1:30 p.m. at the Hecht Center daily. Post-practice interviews will be granted, also.
